2023

YOU AIN'T SEEN NOTHIN' YET!

The 2023 Season is a year of shows that Clear Space has never produced.

As we come out of several years of uncertainty and upheaval, we need a fresh start. So creating art that is completely new is important to us.

The opportunities this allows for next season are numerous. There are so many amazing roles, so many genres of musicals and plays, so many new artists to be heard, and so many new stories to be told.

Bringing works to the stage that we have never attempted offers new opportunities for the voices of our artistic team and company to express themselves. We look forward to sharing another year of amazing growth here at Clear Space as we challenge ourselves to entertain you.

Thank you for going on the journey with us!

David Button, Artistic Director
